

There's No Writing Like Our Writing

Opening Refrain:

There's no writing like our writing, 'cause our writing is so . . .
entertaining, clever and appealing, with drama and imagination too.
Plots that really move ahead with energy and lots of fun for me and for you!

Rap:

Writing! . . . Good writing! . . . Great writing! . . . . . What does it take?

Strong verbs, weak verbs, similies and metaphors.

Focus, narrative . . . dialogue.

Lots of juicy color words, so your plot won't fizzle.

Emotion words, sensory words . . . words that sizzle!

Then edit . . . edit . . . use some writer's tricks!

Super grabber and great plot . . . be the critics' pick!

Closing Refrain:

There's no writing like our writing, 'cause we know what it takes . . .

Sharpen up the pencils and begin to write . . . a story that is sure to delight.

Poems, stories, articles will soon take flight, 'cause we fought the good fight . . .

And we learned how to write . . . WE WRITE!

Note:

In the first line of the rap - leave two beats rest after "Writing," two more beats rest after "Good writing," and four beats rest after "Great writing."
