The Wellerman

A Sea Shanty

Performed by Nathan Evans

A black and white woodcut-style illustration of whaling crew members on a boat, pulling a large net into the water. The scene is set on a wooden deck with a large net being hauled in from the left. Several crew members are visible, some standing and some sitting, engaged in the task. The background shows a textured sea surface.

The viral 'Wellerman' sea shanty is also a window into the remarkable cross-cultural whaling history of Aotearoa New Zealand

Published: January 21, 2021 9.08pm EST

Aotearoa (Māori: [aɔ'tɛaɾɔa]) is the contemporary Māori-language name for New Zealand. The name was originally used by Māori in reference to only the North Island, the name of the whole country being Aotearoa me Te Waipounamu ("North Island and South Island").

Information about The Wellerman

In a year of surprises, one of the more pleasant was the recent runaway viral popularity of 19th century sea shanties on TikTok. A collaborative global response to pandemic isolation, it saw singers and musicians layering harmonies atop an original recording of Soon May the Wellerman Come by Scottish postie Nathan Evans.

Spread via TokTok and other social media, it has become the most popular song in the “ShantyTok” trend. What many fans possibly didn’t realize at first, though, was that the Wellerman shanty is an old New Zealand composition.

More than that, it is a window into an earlier era of global interconnection that shaped the social and economic history of our southern coasts.

The lyrics speak of men’s collective labor at sea. But behind the story of the whale hunt is one of cross-cultural interaction central to the success of the whaling industry, and critical in shaping the settlement of early 19th century New Zealand.

Wellerman (Sea Shanty) - Single Nathan Evans

POP · 2021 · Dolby Atmos · Lossless

This re-discovered song, which has a 'cheerful energy', was likely written by a teenage sailor or shore whaler in New Zealand in the 1830s

1. There once was a ship that put to sea
The name of the ship was the Billy O' Tea
The winds blew up, her bow dipped down
Oh blow, my bully boys, blow.

REFRAIN: Soon may the Wellerman come
To bring us sugar and tea and rum
One day, when the tonguin' is done
We'll take our leave and go.

2. She'd not been two weeks from shore
When down on her a right whale bore
The captain called all hands and swore
He'd take that whale in tow.

REFRAIN: Soon may the Wellerman come
To bring us sugar and tea and rum
One day, when the tonguin' is done
We'll take our leave and go.

INTERLUDE: Da-da-da-da-dat-da
Da-da-dat-da-da-da-da-dat-da
Da-da-da-da-dat-da-da-da-dat-da-dat-da . . .

3. Before the boat had hit the water
The whale's tail came up and caught her
All hands to the side, harpooned and fought her
When she dived down low.

REFRAIN: Soon may the Wellerman come
To bring us sugar and tea and rum
One day, when the tonguin' is done
We'll take our leave and go.

4. No line was cut, no whale was freed
The captain's mind was not of greed
And he belonged to the Whaleman's creed
She took that ship in tow.

REFRAIN: Soon may the Wellerman come
To bring us sugar and tea and rum
One day, when the tonguin' is done
We'll take our leave and go.

INTERLUDE: Da-da-da-da-dat-da
Da-da-dat-da-da-da-da-dat-da
Da-da-da-da-dat-da-da-da-dat-da . . .

5. For forty days or even more
The line went slack, then tight once more
All boats were lost, there were only four
But still that whale did go.

REFRAIN: Soon may the Wellerman come
To bring us sugar and tea and rum
One day, when the tonguin' is done
We'll take our leave and go.

6. As far as I've heard, the fight's still on
The line's not cut, and the whale's not gone
The Wellerman makes his regular call
To encourage the captain, crew and all.

REFRAIN: Soon may the Wellerman come
To bring us sugar and tea and rum
One day, when the tonguin' is done
We'll take our leave and go.

GIDDY-UP! A STICK-HORSE ADVENTURE

The Wild Horseman

By Robert Schumann (1810–1856)

INSTRUCTIONAL STEPS

1. Tell the children the title and composer of the piece.
2. Display your two horse puppets and ask the children to name them. Solicit name suggestions and choose two that are appealing to the children. Ask the children to greet each horse by name.
3. Discuss the AABA form, while placing the Form Chart on the board or projecting it electronically. Explain to the children that the first horse gets to gallop on the A Sections and the second horse will gallop on the B Section. (In the video demo, the first horse is named Midnight; the second is Caramel.) Ask your students which horse gets to have the most fun. (Answer: Midnight—because he gets to gallop a lot.)
4. Invite the children to use their hands as horses while you demonstrate the form activity with your puppets. Start the music and gallop one horse during the A Sections and the other horse during the B Section. Repeat the entire activity with the other horse galloping on the A Sections. Be sure to call out “The A Section repeats!” on the second A, as some children won’t catch this melody feature.
5. Position your students in their “barn” locations. I instruct all the boys to line up on one side of the room in their “row of horse stalls” and all the girls to line up in their barn on the opposite side of the room, facing the boys.
6. Distribute stick horses, a few at a time. Consider calling children to get a horse by the month in which they were born, hair color, pets owned, etc. Just for fun we “groom” the stick horses, give them some snacks out of our pockets, choose a name for them, and give them a drink of water before we ride.
7. For the first experience, assign one team to ride on the A Sections. The other team will ride during B. Tell them that you will be helping them hear the section changes by calling cues. (I always give a little heads up when each section is nearing its end.) Start the music and enjoy the children’s squeals of joy as they ride to this exciting piece!

* It’s best if your horse puppets are two different colors. The Mary Meyer Trotters Horse Tippy Toes finger puppets, which are what I use, are available in several colors. Get the stick horses from a dollar store.
